Sié Mawk : Creole poetry in fruity lyrics

From Caribbean origins, Sié Mawk was always raised by music since his childhood. This disposition was handed down to him by the atavism of his classical pianist grandmother. Influenced by Blues and by Compas, he naturally aimed at these musical genres.

He leaves la Martinique for Montpellier where he joins the Reggae band "Regg'lyss" in which he performs for 6 years. He works simultaneously with musicians from the african musical universe, and in particular from Cameroun and among them the drummer Christian Bourdon.

Also passionate about Santana, he performs his songs in many concerts. Back in Martinique, Sié Mawk joins the Jazz band "Géode" in which he mixes notably with José Zébina, Luther François and Philippe Caldero. He participates to the cultural festivals of the island.

In Paris, he works on compositions in collaboration with known artists such as : Yvon Rosillette, Bago, Thierry Mvie, Michel Alibo, Carlos Baguidi and Luther François. The tracks Parôl and Taysah allow him to win two SACEM prizes he would receive during the Carrefour Mondial de Guitare.

Parôl* wins the SACEM Prize in the category Popular Song and Taysah the SACEM Prize in the Jazz category.

Sié Mawk is now preparing a 2nd album
